Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

The receipts from taxes on Saturday amounted to $3,993.65.

The case of ex-Senator Kellogg has been fixed for trial in the criminal court to-day. While strapping a razor yesterday morning Mr. Harry R. Winters, of north A street, had two fingers of his left hand nearly severed. For breaking into the livery stable of Mr James G. Bowen and stealing some blankets, William Banks was held for the grand jury in the police court on Saturday.

Elijah Boston was fined $5 in the police court Saturday for stealing some taff, and his lawyer, John Moss, was fined $10 for con-tempt in not obeying an order of the court. William Sandford, the bogns "water in-spector" who was arrested in Baltimore on Friday, waived an examination in the police court Saturday, and the case sent to the grand

The case of Gabriel Wroe, for stealing battery sinks from the United States Signal office, where he was imployed, was on Satur-day continued until to-day in the police

Congressional burial ground has been improved lately under the care of Mr. H. Browning. The old public vault has been put in good order, the avenues repaired, the superintendent's office, and outbuildings painted, besides minor changes noted about the grounds which add much to the beauty of the place.

The "Cormus club," a new social organiza The "Cormusciuo, a new social organiza-tion, has filled a certificate of incorporation. W. R. King, F. P. Madigan, Wm. E. Little, Edwin Forrest, and J. A. Waddy, are named as the incorporators. The object of the club are "to promote science, literature, and music, and for mutual improvement and so-cial intercourse."
